

Table of Contents

Chapter 1 -- Life

Kobe	Yuko Nishiumi
What is frightening is frightening	Junko Yano
What is wrong with putting a little makeup on?	O.R.
Self-discipline, self-discipline, we are told...	Tae Shibata
The meaning of fun	Kazuko Sakaki
Rubbish dropped on the roads	Tae Shibata
Box dinners at evacuation centers don't go bad	Rei Kujo
Taking part in the toilet inspection in Kobe	Miharu Kawamoto
When the able-bodied are in rubble, are handicapped shoved aside?	Yoshiko Azuma
I wasn't able to go to an evacuation center	H.E.
About schools serving as evacuation centers	Tae Shibata
What I discovered after the earthquake	I.S.
In memory of Mrs. Eiko Mitsuya	Keiko Muroya
Living in temporary housing	Fumi Miyasato
The disaster, its aftermath	Mitsuyo Mita
Our charcoal briquette bath	Mayumi Kobayashi
What is life, if not being tossed about?	Satomi Amano
We remember...from a distance	Nozomi Kawai

Chapter 2 -- Work

Transportation is a crucial lifeline	Taeko Inada
A wife of a rogue (A yakuza-like woman)	Y.R.
What is a company?	Reiko Masai
Mass dismissal of part-timers	Tomoe Kuroda
Together with the labor union, I fought against the company	O.M.
Don't allow unfair dismissal	Tomoko Shimokawa
Unreasonable instruction from the National Personnel Authority	N.Y.
Why I resigned – the reasons I had as an insider of a large organization	Yoko Azumi

Double shock	U.Y.
A dentist took advantage of the earthquake turmoil	A.M.
Beware of employers' ignorance	Naori Morimoto
I want to return to my previous workplace	M.A.
The Great Hanshin Earthquake and working women	Kumiko Fujimoto
Women's domestic role in the post-disaster restoration work	Yoko Yamamoto

Chapter 3 -- Of Women and Men, Married Life and Single

Many mountains to cross	Karin Hanazono
The old nest	Keiko Inamura
My Great Hanshin Earthquake story	I.M.
My extended family and myself	H.K.
Dutiful daughter-in-law	Y.K.
Off to a new start	Junko N., formerly know as Junko M.
A cue from rice balls	O.R.
I can do anything!	Mie Yamamoto
Single means unfavorable	Nobuko Kawauchi
Complaints from a defacto wife	Y.S.
Keeping a comfortable distance	Harumi Shimizu
Women always send men off	Akiko Sumida
Husband-phobia	M.K.
Miss Mi – protector of the house	Rie Yanagikawa

Chapter 4 -- Body and Soul

Troubles of mothers with babies	Rumiko Itami
The earthquake and sexual violence	Reiko Masai
Please understand the facts	F.M.
Suddenly, from the darkness	Rie Yanagawa
I want to know a little about my neighbors' sex life	M.N.
Having a puppet play to comfort children	Mitsuko Amano
Swimming is not just a hobby	Yoshiko Azuma
After having a conflict with my mother, I came to learn who I really am	M.N.
Please listen to an SOS of our bodies	Yoshie Kashima

The toilet situation in the shelters	M.N.
What has changed? – feelings from the bottom of my heart	Hisako Sasaki
Aiming at stress free – as a public health nurse	Akiko Akamatsu
My experience as a doctor in the shelters	Chieko Hayashi

Chapter 5 -- Women are Ageing

Women are ageing	Yuko Nishiumi
We create our own society	Hitomi Tsujimoto
Making a community where we feel safe about getting older	Rei Nakajima
A moment in the shelters	Sachiko Hashimoto
A month in the shelter	Genzo Kase
Buried alive for 35 hours	Y.M.
When women retire	Rie Yanagawa
Where will grandma go?	Tsutomu Ando

Chapter 6 -- Housing, Politics, Human rights

Who was the "affluence" for?	Reiko Masai
Regardless of the earthquake, women have no home in the three worlds	Yuko Azumi
Singles and housing problems	I.Y.
Isn't there peace for single mothers?	K.N.
The earthquake-exposed problems of single-mother families	Michie Mukai
Great earthquake and the disabled	Shoko Nishiyama
The disabled are always last: Cold reaction to voices crying for help	Kazumi Sakamoto
The Great Hanshin Earthquake for North Korean residents	Li Oku Sun
Tent city	Naori Morimoto
What did the administration do for foreigners?	Kazumi Moriki
The type of city we wish to live in: Toward reconstruction	Chie Kawasaki
The women's grass-roots election campaign was worthwhile	Reiko Masai

Chapter 7 -- Media

Picture transformed into drama	Shoko Hayashi
News reported and not reported	Akiko Wada
These words cannot be allowed	I.T.
Mass media focusing men	Yoko Yamamoto
Keeping humanity	Reiko Yamamoto
No more family love	Y.H.

Discussion -- Half a year has passed since the Great Hanshin Earthquake, and now...

Epilogue: 10 years after the Great Hanshin Earthquake by Reiko Masai

Disasters Serious Impacts on Women

- Women's Poverty
- Mass Dismissal of Part-timers

Health and the Prevention of Domestic/Sexual Violence

- The Impact of Shelter Life on Women's Health
- Insufficient Support for Pregnant Women and Mothers with Infants
- Disasters and Violent Actions against Women

Women's Participation in Disaster Reduction and Post-Disaster Reconstruction

- Operation of Shelters immediately after the Great Hanshin-Awaji Earthquake
- Participation of Women in Disaster Reduction and Post-disaster Reconstruction Planning

Appendix